

Jan LeTourneau Elected to the Board of Directors of ECFC

MHM's Chief Compliance Officer, Jan LeTourneau, QPA, CFCI, has been elected to an initial three year term as a Board of Director for The Employers Council on Flexible Compensation (ECFC). There are 18 seats on the ECFC Board, with 13 positions currently filled.

Jan, also, was recently named Treasurer for a new, wholly-owned subsidiary of ECFC: Flexible Compensation Institute. This new arm of ECFC is dedicated to the development of educational materials, study guides, and teaching curriculum that instructors can use to help professionals in the flexible compensation arena achieve CFC and CFCI designations.

With over 20 years of experience in the industry, MHM is fortunate and proud that Jan has spent her entire career helping MHM grow and become a recognized leader in the flexible compensation arena.

ECFC is a non-profit organization dedicated to help create a positive climate for the growth of flexible compensation and the maintenance and expansion of private employee benefit programs on a tax-advantaged basis, by representing and promoting flexible compensation programs through effective lobbying and providing information on flexible compensation programs to members, national opinion leaders and the general public.

ECFC has over 2,800 members, professionals who represent and serve Fortune 500 corporations, universities, state and local governments, labor unions, professional trade associations and societies.

To get more information from ECFC about the CFC certification you may e-mail them at: certification@flexiblecompensationinstitute.org.
